PRAYER: O triune God, what an exciting mystery we celebrate today, that You, our God, are three persons in one being. Your essence is so awesome, it is beyond our understanding. O Father, You adopted us as Your children through the death and resurrection of Your Son. O Holy Spirit, You gave us faith in Jesus through explosive power of the gospel. You testify that we are God's children, and You guarantee our inheritance of eternal glory with Jesus. O holy Trinity, Your saving love overwhelms us. Keep us as Your own, and each day move us to declare: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty! We ask this in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

10 Commandments of Welcoming Visitors

By James Uglum

1. Thou shalt pray for people in the service whom you don't recognize. They may be guests who feel uncomfortable and uncertain, or they may be members whom you don't recognize. And if all you see are familiar faces pray for them!
2. Thou shalt smile. Guest (and everyone else) feel welcome when they see smiling people.
3. Thou shalt not sit on the ends of rows. I love the arm rest as much as the next guy, but as the service fills up be willing to move to the middle so guests don't have to walk over you.
4. Thou shalt not fill up the back rows first. I have always loved the back rows, even before my very vocal son came along. But save some room in the back for guests and those who arrive late so they don't have to walk in front of everyone.
5. Thou shalt have ushers to help guests to their seats. Ushers, let guests know you can help them if needed.
6. Thou shalt offer assistance to guests. If someone looks like they don't know where to go, then they probably don't know where to go. Ask them if you can help.

7. Thou shalt not gather too long in your holy huddles. Sure, it's OK to talk to your friends, but don't stay there so long that you are not speaking to guests, or welcoming new friends into your circle.
8. Thou shalt offer your seats to guests. I know that this move is a great sacrifice, but that family of four can't fit in the three vacant seats next to you.
9. Thou shalt not save seats. I know you want to have room for all your friends and family, but do you know how a guest feels when he or she see vacant seats next to you occupied by three hymnals, one Bible, two coats, and an umbrella?
10. Thou shall greet someone you don't know. Yes, it's risky. They may actually be members you don't know.

Let brotherly love continue.
Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

Hebrews 13:1-2
